Although the great bulk of the evidence collected for time ough the great bulk of the evidence collected for the defense was ruled out by Judge B., yet the opening on that side by ISAIAH T. WILLIAMS, esq., gives a good idea of its by ISAIAH T. WILLIAMS, esq., gives a good idea of its character and of the grounds of our disesteem of the New York legislation of 1890, its engineers, and their instruments. The railings of Judge BACON and the comments thereon by JOHN K. PORTER, esq., of Albany, deserve and will command the attention of lawyers and jurists. And whoever wants to see whatever can be said against the defendant in this suit by a bitter political and general adversary, who knows that he is not to be answered, must be gratified with the summing up for the plaintiff by the Hon. HENRY A. FOSTER. The crosscae painting by the Hon. HERRY A. FOSTER. The cross-essemination of the defendant by the Hon. CHAS. B. SEDG-WICK, libewise, presents some noteworthy espects. As po-licar libel rule are less common than formerly, and as the lagalation of 1806 is a subject of enduring interest, we believe beary will find this pumphlet worth reading and preserving. Stand.
